DISCIPLINE INFORMATION: Please refer to the Program Manual for detailed SPC School of Dental Hygiene Policies

CLASSROOM DECORUM:

As a student of the SPC School of Dental Hygiene, you are required to abide by the School of Dental Hygiene Policies and Regulations in the Program Manual. Classes will be conducted in accordance with the policies stated in the SPC Student Code of Conduct. Neither acts of academic misconduct nor inappropriate behavior in any form will be tolerated at St. Petersburg College. The official college policy is enumerated in BOT Rule 6Hx23-4.461 (STUDENT AFFAIRS: ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICIES).

Cheating on quizzes and exams will not be tolerated - should this occur, you will be asked to leave the classroom immediately and the stated attendance policies will be in effect. Plagiarism will not be tolerated. The use of ideas which you have paraphrased without proper citation is a form of plagiarism. If caught, the offending students will be given a grade of "0" for the assignment and the assignment cannot be made up.

Each student's behavior in the classroom or online is expected to contribute to a positive learning/teaching environment, respecting the rights of others and their opportunity to learn. No student has the right to interfere with the teaching/learning process, including the posting of inappropriate materials on chatroom or Web page sites.

The instructor has the authority to ask a disruptive student to leave a classroom or lab. The instructor may also delete posts or materials from an online or blended class and/or take disciplinary action if disruptive behavior continues.

As your instructor, I have the following conduct expectations of you as a student in this course:

- a. Students will be respectful and professional to instructor and fellow classmates at all times.
- b. There will be no inappropriate talking and/or sleeping in class or in Bahamas.
- c. There will be no reading other than class material.
- d. Cell phones & beepers are to be turned off during class times. Students who leave class to conduct personal business will receive a partial absence (late) for the class session. Laptop computers may be used at the discretion of the instructor.
- e. Will attend all meetings in Bahamas and will arrive on time.

Any deviation from the above rules (a-e) will result in the student being asked to leave the classroom immediately. This will count as a late.

Participation grade criteria: in order to receive full credit each student must:

- access MyCourses for class notes and information, prior to each class session
- commit to scholarly participation in the discussions in class and online
- complete and participate in planning and development of class projects (as determined by group members)

You may expect your instructor to be available during office hours. I will try to answer email within 24 hours Monday-Thursday and within 48 hours Friday-Sunday.

ELECTRONIC PROTOCOL:

No recording, videotaping, photographs or any other form of capturing of a lecture/lab/presentation is allowed without permission from the faculty's permission.

All electronic devices including computers, cell phones, beepers, pagers, and related devices are to be silenced and/or turned off unless they are required for academic purposes. Any use of these devices (including texting) for non-academic purposes is a violation of College Policy and subject to disciplinary action.

Students may be required to have discussions of class assignments and share papers and other class materials with instructors and classmates via chat rooms and other mechanisms. Due to the potential piracy of students' materials, the College is not responsible for student work posted on the Internet (outside of the college's Learning Management System, currently MyCourses).

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION RULES:

1. Students must attend all prep sessions and daily activities in Bahamas. Should students not be present they must notify Mrs. Krueger in her room or on her personal phone PRIOR to the start of the day in Bahamas or Two points will be deducted off of the student's final grade if they are tardy. If they miss completely, (based on reason) they may be told to leave Bahamas (at their own expense) and they will earn a zero for the course.
2. Students will be respectful and professional to instructor, fellow classmates, Bahamian people, other professional volunteers, the Great Shapes and Sandals personnel at all times.
3. Students will attend all meetings, participate in all fundraising activities (unless receiving permission from course instructor) must participate in preparation for program and must be on time and attentive at all activities at SPC and in Bahamas.
4. The class will be conducted in accordance with acceptable behavior as described in the SPC Dental Hygiene Program Manual and SPC student guidelines. Students will follow all department and college wide rules and regulations.
5. Students will follow all SPC International Guidelines,

6. Students will never leave the assigned Bahamian or clinic property unescorted or by themselves or without faculty permission. Student will always travel about the property and throughout the Bahamas with another person from SPC. If this occurs the student will be sent back to the US and will earn a zero in the course.

GRADING/CRITERIA PERFORMANCE STANDARD:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will, with minimum 75% accuracy, demonstrate mastery of each of the above stated objectives through classroom measures developed by the individual course instructors.

The final grade for the course is based on completion of all components of the course. A letter grade will be computed as follows: A 93-100; B 84-92; C 75-83; F below 75. A minimum grade of "C" is required to continue in the Dental Hygiene Program.

JURY DUTY:

If the student receives notification of jury duty, they must notify the Program Director immediately upon receiving such a request so that the Program Director can assist the student in responding to the notice. If the student is selected for jury duty, quizzes and exams may be made up. It is the responsibility of the student to provide the Program Director with frequent updates, daily if possible, of when return is anticipated. Official documentation of the term of jury duty is required upon return to the Program.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES:

When an emergency signal sounds students should exit the nearest doors and advance, in an orderly manner, to an area 100 feet away from the building, behind the red line. If a student has special needs that would require help in evacuating the building that information should be given to the instructor at the beginning of the semester as well as at the time of the need to evacuate so help can be provided.

ACCOMMODATIONS:

St. Petersburg College recognizes the importance of equal access for all students. Accessibility Services is the campus office that works with students who have disabilities to provide and/or arrange reasonable accommodations. Students registered with Accessibility Services, who have a letter requesting accommodations, are encouraged to contact the instructor early in the semester. Students who have, or think they may have, a disability (e.g. learning disability, ADD/ADHD, psychiatric, medical/orthopedic, vision, and/or hearing), are invited to contact Accessibility Services for a confidential discussion at 727-341-3721 (V/TTY) or at silvers.stefanie@spcollege.edu. Additional information is available at the college-wide Accessibility Services website: <http://www.spcollege.edu/accessibility/>

ACADEMIC HONESTY: <http://www.spcollege.edu/academichonesty/>

It is your responsibility to be familiar with St. Petersburg College's Academic Honesty policies and the consequences of violations. There is no tolerance for any form of academic dishonesty. Discipline can range from a zero on a specific assignment to expulsion from the class with a grade of "F". Note that copying/pasting published information without citing your sources, whether the information is from your textbook or the Internet is plagiarism and violates this policy. Even if you slightly change the words from an outside source, the ideas are someone else's so you still have to cite your sources. Cheating, plagiarism, bribery, misrepresentation, conspiracy, and fabrication are defined in Board Rule 6Hx23-4.461.

STUDENT SURVEY OF INSTRUCTION:

The student survey of instruction is administered in courses each semester. It is designed to improve the quality of instruction at St Petersburg College. All student responses are confidential and anonymous and will be used solely for the purpose of performance improvement.
