

STUDY ABROAD SYLLABUS: INTERMEDIATE SPANISH I – 3 credit hours

INSTRUCTOR: Roxana Levin, Lyceum 244, Tarpon Springs Campus,
(727) 712-5830, levin.roxana@spcollege.edu

ACADEMIC DEPARTMENT: Communication Department, Dr. Joseph Leopold, TS 101E, Tarpon Springs Campus, (727) 341-3719

COURSE PREFIX AND NUMBER: SPN 2200

COURSE NAME: Intermediate Spanish I

This course is designed to reinforce the basic Spanish language skills previously acquired. This course further develops students' ability to communicate in the language through listening, speaking, reading and writing, as well as an understanding and appreciation of the host culture. This course will be divided into two sections: reading/writing and speaking/listening.

To find additional information, go to: <https://sampere.com/spanish-courses-salamanca/>

STUDY ABROAD APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS:

- Approval for participation in the program is subject to the participant
- being a college student with a high school diploma
- being in good academic standing at the time of application (cannot be on academic warning, probation or suspension)
- being enrolled for credit in an approved study abroad program course
- interviewing with program's lead faculty member
- being approved by the Center for International Programs-paying all deposits and fees according to the fee schedule

MEETING INFORMATION/ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Regular attendance is essential to the learning of a foreign language. You will be expected to attend class regularly, arrive on time, and stay the entire class session. You are subject to being dropped if you accumulate more than five unexcused program hours (including class meetings, cultural activities and planned tours). It is the student's responsibility to notify the classroom instructor as well as the SPC lead instructor of ANY absence.

The program plan for this class (class meetings and activities, etc.) meets or exceeds the requirement of 48 contact hours for the course.

Course Description:

Prerequisite: SPN 1121 or SPN 1121H or permission of program director. This course expands and reviews the previously acquired Spanish language skills and includes more advanced language structures and idiomatic expressions, with emphasis on conversational skills. Enhancing vocabulary for practical purposes, including writing is emphasized. A variety of reading selections will be introduced. 47 contact hours.

Course Objectives:

1. The student will understand sentence-length utterances on a variety of topics and be able to sustain understanding over long stretches of connected discourse on a number of subjects pertaining to different times and places by:
 - a. decoding learned sentences.
 - b. following face-to-face conversations, short telephone conversations, and some deliberate speech.
 - c. comprehending speech concerning personal interests and activities and a greater diversity of instructions and directions.
2. The student will initiate, sustain, and close a general conversation in which grammar, fluency, and pronunciation are generally comprehensible by:
 - a. speaking with limited vocabulary and circumlocutions.
 - b. talking about self and family members.
 - c. asking and answering questions on topics beyond immediate needs, e.g. personal history and leisure activities.
3. The student will read consistently simple connected texts dealing with basic personal and social needs by:
 - a. getting main ideas from texts featuring description and narration.
 - b. understanding texts of increasing structural complexity upon rereading.
4. The student will meet most practical writing needs and some social demands in a generally comprehensible fashion by:
 - a. taking notes on familiar topics.

b. writing answers to personal questions, composing simple letters and preparing summaries.

c. expressing time through verbal inflection.

d. describing and narrating in short paragraphs.

5. The student will continue to deepen knowledge and appreciation of the cultural contributions of Spanish-speaking people by:

a. demonstrating knowledge of Spanish-speaking cultures, e.g. customs, history, politics, art, music, literature, geography, and styles of living.

b. showing an appreciation of the relativity of cultures and of the relationship between language and culture.

MAJOR LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. The student will understand sentence-length utterances on a variety of topics and be able to sustain understanding over long stretches of connected discourse on a number of subjects pertaining to different times and places.
2. The student will initiate, sustain, and close a general conversation in which grammar, fluency, and pronunciation are generally comprehensible.
3. The student will read consistently simple connected texts dealing with basic personal and social needs.
4. The student will meet most practical writing needs and some social demands in a generally comprehensible fashion.
5. The student will continue to deepen knowledge and appreciation of the cultural contributions of Spanish-speaking people.

COURSE CONTENT:

Listening comprehension: You will be able to follow conversations and comprehend speech concerning personal interests and activities.

Reading Comprehension: You will be able to get main ideas from texts and understand texts of increasing structural complexity.

Speaking: You will be able to initiate, sustain, and close a general conversation, as well as ask and answer questions on topics beyond immediate needs.

Writing: You will be able to create statements or questions within the scope of your language experience and handle content including personal preferences, daily routine and everyday events.

Culture: Culture and language are very much interconnected, each influencing the other. It is essential, therefore, to learn culture as an integral part of the language. You will be able to develop an understanding of proper socially accepted language and behavior in Latin and Hispanic Culture.

GRADING:

Instituto Sampere plans to assess and evaluate throughout the month program to ensure your success in the course. The grading will include assessment from the grammar as well as the conversational section of the course. The grading of the course will be based on:

Participation (collaboration and attitude)	25%
Class activities and assignments (oral and written)	25%
Mid-term exam (oral and written)	25%
Final exam (oral and written)	25%

The academic grade will be 90% of your course grade. Participation in extracurricular activities (tours, excursions, dance class, cooking class, movie nights) will be considered for the other 10 % of your course grade. In order to get the 10% of the extracurricular activities, you will need to participate in all the activities and all the weekend excursions (excused absences may apply).

ACADEMIC HONESTY:

St. Petersburg College has an Academic Honesty policy. It is your responsibility to be familiar with the policies, rules, and the consequences of violations. Read about the policy at: <http://www.spcollege.edu/webcentral/admit/honesty.htm>. There is no tolerance for cheating and academic dishonesty. Discipline can range from a zero on that specific assignment to expulsion from the class with a grade of F. Note that copy/pasting published information, whether it's from your textbook or the Internet, without citing your source is plagiarism and violates this policy. Even if you change the words slightly, the ideas are someone else's, so you still have to cite your sources. Cheating, plagiarism, bribery, misrepresentation, conspiracy and fabrication are defined in Rule 6Hx23-4.461, Student Affairs: Academic Honesty Guidelines, Classroom Behavior.

TEXTBOOK INFORMATION:

Required materials: The course textbook will be provided by Estudio Sampere upon arrival in Salamanca. You will be able to keep all the materials provided by Estudio Sampere at the end of the program.

Bilingual dictionary (Spanish –English).

Spain travel guide such as Lonely Planet, Rough Guide, Insight Guide, Frommer's, Fodor's.

Suggested material: definition dictionary (Spanish-Spanish)

ASSIGNMENTS:

Upon arrival you will be asked to take a placement test to assess your language level accordingly. The first day of class you will meet your local Spanish instructors and discuss course syllabus in details. You will receive information regarding course activities as well as assignments.

STUDENT CONDUCT / ALCOHOL AND DRUG POLICY:

Please refer to important information about student conduct and related policies in your study abroad application package.

EMERGENCIES/HEALTH & SAFETY:

Please refer to important information in pre-departure orientation materials.

LINK TO DEPARTMENT OF STATE ADVISORY FOR STUDY ABROAD DESTINATION(S):

http://travel.state.gov/travel/cis_pa_tw/cis/cis_1024.html

This information is subject to change; please check this source again as departure time nears.

TIPS FOR SUCCESS: The following tips will assist you to be successful in the program.

- Live the language. Make and take opportunities to use the language in natural communication in and outside the class during your stay in Spain. Search outside sources to improve your language skills (newspapers, magazines, books, radio, television, etc...)
- Think the language. Avoid heavy reliance on a dictionary and try not to translate everything word for word. Recognize the fact that grammar rules will be different. Learn the difference along with the similarities and your understanding of how the language works will increase tenfold.

- Guess the language. When in doubt, try to guess new words in context and don't be afraid to make mistakes. Take constant advantage of cognates to understand new words and to comprehend new paragraphs.
- Ask about the language. If needed, seek extra help from course instructor, SPC professors, families, and friends in Spain.
- Stay open minded to the language and the culture. The best tool for learning a language at any level is a good attitude. Understanding the culture helps with language acquisition.
- Set realistic goals. Learning another language is not an easy task. It takes time, practice, and dedication. Go into the program with the goal of increasing your communication skills, but avoid setting those goals very high.
- Enjoy! Learning another language is an adventure.

SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS:

If you anticipate requesting of the Learning Specialist an accommodation for a documented disability, it is important to notify the International Programs office as soon as possible that you plan to make a request. Please also make an appointment with the Learning Specialist on campus to make your request as soon as possible. The Learning Specialist can be reached at 791-2628 or 791-2710 (CL), 341-4758 (SP/G), 394-6108 (SE), 712-5789 (TS), or 341-4532 (AC).