GRADING:

Instituto Sampere plans to assess and evaluate throughout the month program to ensure your success in the course. The grading will include assessment from the grammar as well as the conversational section of the course. The grading of the course will be based on:

Participation (collaboration and attitude)	25%
Class activities and assignments (oral and written)	25%
Mid-term exam (oral and written)	25%
Final exam (oral and written)	25%

The academic grade will be 90% of your course grade. Participation in extracurricular activities (tours, excursions, dance class, cooking class, movie nights) will be considered for the other 10 % of your course grade. In order to get the 10% of the extracurricular activities, you will need to participate in all the activities and all the weekend excursions (excused absences may apply).

ACADEMIC HONESTY:

St. Petersburg College has an Academic Honesty policy. It is your responsibility to be familiar with the policies, rules, and the consequences of violations. Read about the policy at: <http://www.spcollege.edu/webcentral/admit/honesty.htm>. There is no tolerance for cheating and academic dishonesty. Discipline can range from a zero on that specific assignment to expulsion from the class with a grade of F. Note that copy/pasting published information, whether it's from your textbook or the Internet, without citing your source is plagiarism and violates this policy. Even if you change the words slightly, the ideas are someone else's, so you still have to cite your sources. Cheating, plagiarism, bribery, misrepresentation, conspiracy and fabrication are defined in Rule 6Hx23-4.461, Student Affairs: Academic Honesty Guidelines, Classroom Behavior.

TIPS FOR SUCCESS: The following tips will assist you to be successful in the program.

- Live the language. Make and take opportunities to use the language in natural communication in and outside the class during your stay in Spain. Search outside sources to improve your language skills (newspapers, magazines, books, radio, television, etc...)
- Think the language. Avoid heavy reliance on a dictionary and try not to translate everything word for word. Recognize the fact that grammar rules will be different. Learn the difference along with the similarities and your understanding of how the language works will increase tenfold.
- Guess the language. When in doubt, try to guess new words in context and don't be afraid to make mistakes. Take constant advantage of cognates to understand new words and to comprehend new paragraphs.
- Ask about the language. If needed, seek extra help from course instructor, SPC professors, families, and friends in Spain.
- Stay open minded to the language and the culture. The best tool for learning a language at any level is a good attitude. Understanding the culture helps with language acquisition.
- Set realistic goals. Learning another language is not an easy task. It takes time, practice, and dedication. Go into the program with the goal of increasing your communication skills, but avoid setting those goals very high.
- Enjoy! Learning another language is an adventure.
